

Bound book with deckle edges

I am already
missing you
as I hear tires
whisper goodbye
on the drive.
Tonight I will reach
across the bed,
hand to hip,
knowing my grasp will
exceed my reach
not by miles
but by days.
The scent
of your loose night shirt and the pleasure its buttons give me
is unfortunately,
like you,
absent.

Composite text from the 48-pp. bound book.

I Am Already

This is a 48-pp, letterpress-printed, poem book. Text from each page is composited onto the single page above. The cased-in book measures 6" x 9" x 0.5." It is typeset with 18-point Ludlow Linecaster Eusebius (set at Vixen Press, Winnetka, Illinois) and printed on handmade deckled flax and abacca paper with cotton end sheets. The edition is signed and numbered 1 to 50.